Wash for Fruit Trees.

An experienced truit-grower, the owner of a fine orchard near Niagara river, Western New York, says that in the care of his trees be had practiced one simple method with eminent success. He takes lye from leached ushes, mixes a little grease with it, beats it quite warm, and with a syringe throws it up into all parts of the trees-branches and trunk. It will effectually kill all kinds of worms DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE that are either infesting the trees in nests or running over the bark. Trees treated in this manner were exceedingly healthy, beautiful and vigorous in appearance, possessing a smooth, glossy bark, and bore the best apples in the country. The remedy is easy a remarkable vine. Train this to a single stake, and pinch off all side shoots, the object being to concentrate the flow of sap, and grow a stout, stock vine, instead of a dozen puny, spindling ones. In the fall when the vines casts its leaf and winter has set in, cut this vine back to about one foot in heighth, and cover with some kind of mulch, hay, cornstalks, straw, potato vines, leaves, or even dirt. Next spring allow only the two uppermost to grow, grubbing off all others. This will seem murderous to many who are anxious their vine should make a show, and are eager to taste the first fruits. But in the end it is economy, will give the best satisfaction, and we believe harmonize with the views of most cultivators.

Turnip Fly.

The best gardeners look out for the turnip fly about as soon as they sow their turnip seed. They use lime. tobacco dust, or soot mixed with road dust or leached ashes, which they scatter over the turnip beds, morning and evening for the first week after sowing the seed.
